Task: HTML Basics and Forms

To Learn: Document structure, text, links, images, lists, basic form controls.

Task description: Study the following tags and attributes. Practice each one in a small HTML file.

- <html> — page root.
- <head> — page settings.
- <title> — browser title.
- <meta> — page information.
- <body> — visible page content.
- <h1> to <h3> — headings.
-  — paragraph.
-
 — line break.
- <hr> — separator.
- — important text.
- — emphasized text.
-  — highlighted text.
- <small> — small text.
-  — link.
- <img> — image.
- — unordered list.
- — ordered list.
- — list item.
- — general container.
- — inline container.
- <form> — form.
- <label> — field label.
- <input type="text"> — text input.
- <input type="email"> — email input.
- <input type="password"> — password input.
- <input type="date"> — date input.
- <input type="number"> — number input.
- <input type="checkbox"> — checkbox.
- <input type="radio"> — radio button.
- <button> — button.
- Common attributes: id, class, name, value, placeholder, required, disabled, checked, min, max, step, href, src, alt, target.

Task Assignment: Personal Profile and Contact Page

Assignment description: Build one complete personal profile page. Add a contact form. Use only HTML. Do not use CSS or JavaScript.

Assignment instructions:

- Create one HTML page.
- Set a useful page title.

- Add a main heading.
- Add a short introduction.
- Add a profile image.
- Add image alt text.
- Add an About section.
- Add a Skills list.
- Add an Education list.
- Add useful links.
- Open external links in a new tab.
- Add a Contact form.
- Add name input.
- Add email input.
- Add password input.
- Add date input.
- Add age or experience number input.
- Add gender radio buttons.
- Add interest checkboxes.
- Add a message field using available HTML studied.
- Mark important fields as required.
- Use labels for all form fields.
- Use meaningful id and name values.
- Add Submit and Reset buttons.
- Use at least 20 tags from the task.
- Use at least 10 different attributes.
- Keep the HTML properly indented.
- Test every link and form control.
- Use meaningful text.
- Do not use CSS or JavaScript.